

904 Madeline Lane

Cleburne, TX 76033

3

2.0

1,989

2

Step inside this beautiful single-level home and you are welcomed into a large, open-concept floor plan boasting plenty of entertaining areas that also offer parents privacy with a secluded master retreat.

Stepping into the foyer reveals a bounty of possibilities! Off to one side, double doors lead to a tranquil study - offering serenity and silence for the busy student or adult who needs a place apart from the hustle and bustle of day-to-day life. And just beyond the foyer lies an open formal dining room - ideal for dinner parties, casual gatherings, or mouthwatering family meals.

Featuring stainless steel appliances, beautiful cabinets, a curved island, a large pantry, and granite countertops, your kitchen will be a masterpiece like never before. Gather with your family for breakfast in the nook with its built-in window seat before taking your tasty meal outside to enjoy it on the covered patio. With all of this storage and plenty of counter space to work with, you'll be ready to whip up multi-course meals at the drop of a hat.

The exclusive master suite is set back from the family room. Enjoy a large room with vaulted ceilings and a built-in window seat. The adjoining master bathroom is complete with a dual sink vanity, a separate walk-in shower with a seat, a large garden tub, and a spacious walk-in closet.

Two additional bedrooms are located in their own wing, and your kids or guests will have plenty of room to relax without feeling cramped. The full bathroom and utility room nearby adds an extra level of convenience, so you can stay organized with ease. Plus, being able to access the two-car garage directly from the front of the home means there's no need to make trips across the entire house when coming or going.

