

300 Waterview Drive

Gunter, TX 75058

4

3.0

2,798

3

For those seeking contemporary comfort, this stunning four-bedroom, three-bathroom residence is an ideal choice. Every detail has been meticulously considered, from the inviting covered front porch to the sunlit foyer. With an array of exquisite features, it won't be long before you make this house your own!

A stone-to-ceiling fireplace adds a captivating touch to any home. On chilly nights, find solace in the family room as you watch your favorite show, enveloped in the cozy warmth of the fireplace's embers.

Entertaining guests in your kitchen is a delight, thanks to its impressive design. From the expansive kitchen island to the elegant white cabinets, from the quartz countertops to the gleaming stainless steel appliances, this kitchen offers everything you need. Afterward, retreat to the breakfast nook and appreciate the abundant natural light streaming in through the windows, along with a picturesque view of your backyard.

The owner's suite ensures the utmost privacy in this luxurious sanctuary. You'll be pampered with a grand walk-in closet that resembles a dressing room and a splendid ensuite featuring a freestanding tub, a walk-in shower, and double vanities, creating an ambiance reminiscent of a spa.

Rest assured, this home offers ample space to accommodate your needs, with three generously proportioned secondary bedrooms, each equipped with walk-in closets and easy access to two full baths. Convenience and functionality are embodied in the utility room's cabinet and sink, while long-term storage solutions abound thanks to the three-car garage. It's evident why this home is so impressive—it seamlessly combines functionality with enduring style.

