

3830 Star Mesa Street

Heartland, TX 75126

4

3.0

2,804

2

The ultimate in relaxed modern living awaits in this impeccably-designed and spacious single-family home. Spanning two levels, the layout has been crafted to offer multiple living spaces ensuring there's plenty of room for everyone to spread out and relax or entertain guests in style. Step inside this beautiful home and you'll be captivated. From the inviting foyer to the spacious bedrooms, there's plenty to explore. To your left, you will find a study with double entry doors, the perfect place for getting some work done. To your right is a bedroom with a walk-in closet, great for visitors, and provides easy access to the full bathroom. The open-plan wood-look tile flooring creates a cohesive environment that carries through all the family's favorite spots. The family room is definitely the star of the show, with plenty of space to accommodate weekend movie nights or game nights. Oversized windows fill the family room with light and also grant a picturesque view of the garden outside. Plus, it has access to the covered patio for lunch in the warm summer breeze, perfect for any family outing. If you're a passionate chef or just love cooking for your friends and family, this kitchen is sure to inspire you! Outfitted with all the best amenities, from a walk-in pantry with plenty of room for ingredients to spacious granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, and stunning cabinets, not to mention the centerpiece center island. This charming lower level has something for everyone, including a comfy two-car garage and a spacious utility room. But it's the master suite that really takes the cake, with a luxurious walk-in closet and master bath that will bring out the inner royalty in all of us. The double vanity and garden tub create a romantic atmosphere, while the private toilet and shower with seat, provide both pampering experiences and convenience. With its stunning upper level, this contemporary home is like a dream come true! As soon as you walk up the stairs, you're welcomed by a generous game room, offering ample entertainment no matter who is visiting. With two bedrooms side by side and each with its own convenient walk-in closet and access to the full bath, it's the perfect house for plenty of guests. Waking up in this inviting one-of-a-kind home will make all your days brighter!

