

109 Goldfinch Road

Joshua, TX 76058

3

2.5

2,622

2

Welcome to this breathtaking home that will leave you speechless! Prepare to be wowed by the stunning pop-up ceiling in the front hall, the cozy wood burning fireplace in the family room, and the elegant double-doored study. With charming details and plenty of space for everyone to enjoy, this remarkable home is sure to become your favorite place. The kitchen is a show-stopper and the perfect setting for culinary masterpieces. You'll love the stainless steel appliances, quartz countertops, and sleek cabinets that make this space ultra chic. The thoughtfully designed breakfast nook, with its built-in window seat, offers the best views of the spacious porch-covered patio. For ultimate relaxation and privacy, the spacious main bedroom is strategically located away from the common areas. The attached bathroom is a luxurious retreat with two vanities, a separate shower with a comfy bench, a generous soaking tub, and an impressively large walk-in wardrobe. Now, let's explore the kid's wing, where two additional bedrooms await. These rooms provide a special haven for your little ones and guests, complete with linen closets for easy organization. They also have access to a full bathroom with a dual sink vanity. The powder room, two-car garage, and full-sized utility room are conveniently nearby, making home maintenance a breeze. With its charming details and ample space for everyone to thrive, this unique home is more than just a house—it's a beloved sanctuary in the making. Get ready to move in and start creating memories that will be treasured for a lifetime!

